

Oilette
G

THE WEST INDIES.—A Martinique Lady.

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE"

[Regd.] Postcard 7047.
From "THE WEST INDIES," illustrated by A. S. Forrest (A. & C. Black).

224556
TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE.

POSTKARTE.

A Martinique Lady. The coloured classes of the West Indies are extremely fond of brilliant and extravagant clothing. The dress of even the working negroes is always relieved by a sash or tie of some bright hue, and all, including half-breeds, when their means permit, love to dress in the latest fashion obtainable.

(FOR ADDRESS ONLY.)

